Sexual Assault Policy

Security officers, staff and administrative and teaching faculty follow clear processes, both in Yellow Springs and on off-campus programs (subject to the laws and policies of particular countries and host institutions), when responding to a report of sexual assault.

Antioch College supports any members of our community who become victims of sexual assault. We will offer immediate help and also referrals to appropriate persons and organizations, often including but not limited to, local police, hospitals, advocacy groups and counseling and crisis centers. Whenever possible, members of off-campus programs receive a list of resources available at or near their program site and in advance of the program. In the aftermath of a sexual assault the College works to create and accommodate alternative living, working and academic arrangements as appropriate.

Antioch College supports education to the community about sexual assault on Antioch's campus. This is accomplished by making the entire Sexual Assault Policy document, a resource for referral and education, available to all members of the community.
